REVAL HOTEL SONYA

The Reval Hotel Sonya is inspired by one of the supreme masterpieces of world literature - Crime and Punishment by Fyodor Dostoyevsky. Contemporary and very personal, this 4-star hotel was influenced by the tale of transformation and Dostoyevsky's stunning interpretation of the limitless depths of the Russian soul.

The Reval Hotel Sonya is ideally located in the city center of St. Petersburg with the easy access to the River Neva. It overlooks one of the main city avenues, Liteyny prospect, and is just 15 minutes walk away from the Hermitage and the Russian Museum.

The hotel offers 173 beautifully designed guestrooms. The cozy, well-equipped rooms will be welcomed by individual and business travelers alike. All rooms have complimentary WiFi.

The lively Metamorfos restaurant and bar is dedicated to guiding its guests on a culinary odyssey through traditional and modern Russian cuisine.

The hotel features four hi-tech fully equipped meeting rooms for up to 60 people and an atrium catering for up to 200, all suitable for business meetings and private functions.

The fitness centre of the Reval Hotel Sonya is ideal tool to revive your body and soul.
